

Periodontology in General Practice - improving outcomes and avoiding litigation

Date and Venue:
Friday 28th March, 2014
Alverton Hotel, Truro

Course Organiser:
Carrie Bradburn, Dental Postgraduate Tutor

Course Lecturer:
Dr Matthew Perkins
BDS MSc MClintDent MFD RCSI MRD RCSEd - Specialist in Periodontics

Programme

09.00 – 09.30 Registration and Tea/Coffee

- 09.30 -10.45 - Aetiology of Periodontal Diseases
- Risk based assessment of the dental patient

10.45 - 11.15 Tea/Coffee

- 11.15 -12.30 - The extraoral and intraoral soft tissue examinations
- Periodontal assessment of the healthy and diseased patient

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch

- 13.30 – 14.45 - Special tests and radiographic interpretation
- Rationale for periodontal treatment

14.45 – 15.15 Tea/Coffee

- 15.15 – 16.30 - Non-surgical treatments for the periodontal patient
(Chronic and Aggressive Disease)
- Surgical management of periodontitis

16.30 Questions & Close

Aim:- To present an overview of current thinking in periodontology

Objectives:- By the end of the training delegates will have a better understanding of:-

The aetiology of periodontal disease
The rationale for periodontal treatment
Non-surgical treatments for the periodontal patient
The surgical management of periodontitis