

Decontamination: Practical Procedures for the Dental Team'

by

Carmel Maher

Tuesday 13 January 2015
Postgraduate Medical Centre, Bath

Programme

- 13.00 Registration
- 13.15 Session 1
- 15.00 Tea & Discussion
- 15.15 Session 2
- 16.25 Conclusions & consensus
- 16.30 Close

Aims and Objectives

- To provide a detailed explanation of the procedures required for implementing effective infection control as recommended in the Department of Health Document HTM01-05
- To provide a clear understanding of the reasons for implementing these procedures
- To understand the importance and correct use of Personal Protective Equipment
- To understand the importance of cleaning instruments prior to sterilisation
- To understand the importance of decontaminating the surgery and/or the decontamination facility
- To provide a clear understanding of the advice on effective hand hygiene
- To understand the testing requirements of decontamination equipment