

Superior Aesthetics - New Direct Composite Veneers vs Anterior Composite Layering Technique

Date and venue:

Wednesday 15th April 2015
Bedruthan Steps Hotel, Mawgan Porth

Course Organiser:

Carrie Bradburn, Dental Postgraduate Tutor

Course Lecturer

Dr Munther Sulieman BDS, LDSRCS, MSc, PhD

Programme

0900 - 09.30	Registration
09.30 -10.45	The causes of Tooth Discolouration and various treatment options for dealing with them.
10.45 -11.00	Tea/Coffee
11.00 -11.45 11.45 – 13.00	Componeers vs Layering Composites Clinical Technique Hands-On - Componeers
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-15.30	Hands On Exercise: "Natural Layering concept" of composite veneer or large Class IV cavity. To include palatal build-up of enamel composite followed by dentine composite with appropriate stains and effects before final buccal enamel composite placement.
15.30 -15.45	Tea/Coffee
15.45-16.30	Hands On- Various stages of polishing and stain protection.
16.30	End of day evaluation

AIM: To give an overview of all forms of tooth discolouration and the various techniques used to treat them

OBJECTIVES: By the end of the day delegates should:

- Understand the various causes of tooth discoloration
- Gain knowledge of all techniques available to improve anterior aesthetics with appropriate indications and contraindications.
- Be able to use new direct composite ready-made "Componeers"
- Be able to use composite layering techniques to improve anterior aesthetics.