

Date and venue:

2nd March 2016

Engineer's House Clifton Bristol, BS8 3NB

Course Organiser:

Vassia Karpeta

Course Lecturer: Mr Paul HR Wilson

Programme

09:15 - 09:30	Registration
09:30 – 09:40	Introduction
09:40 – 10:10	Linking pulpal physiology to trauma
10:15-10:30	Coffee
10:30 -11:45	The scope of oro-dental injuries
11:45-13:00	Contemporary acute management
13:00-14:00	Lunch
14:00 – 15:00 legal aspects	Rehabilitation long term complications &
15:00 – 15:15	Tea/Coffee
15:15 – 16:15	Case scenarios &Discussions
16:15	Conclusion

Aim: This interactive and popular course will update participants in the contemporary management of dental trauma.

Objectives: by the end of the course, participants will;

1. Have an understanding of the pathophysiology of different types of traumatic injuries to teeth;
2. Be aware of the latest guidelines in the management of traumatic injuries to teeth;
3. Have an in-depth understanding of contemporary materials in the management of the traumatised tooth.