

Date and venue:
9th March 2016,
Engineer's House, Bristol, BS8 3NB

Course Organiser:
Vassia Karpeta

Course Lecturer:
Ms. Jo Russell RDN Cert DPM Cert Ed MSET LCGI

Programme

09:30 - 09:15	Registration
09:15 – 10:45	Disinfection and decontamination part 1. The means of CQC registration and basic requirements for decontamination in dental practice
10:45 – 11:00	Coffee
11:00 – 12:30	Disinfection and decontamination part 2. Pre-sterilization cleaning and hand washing.
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch
13:45 – 15:00	Health and Safety Part 1: Applicable Regulations to Dentistry
15:00 – 15:15	Tea/Coffee
15:15 – 16:15	Health and Safety Part 2: Work through effective COSHH & Risk assessments.
16:30 – 16:45	Conclusion

Disinfection & Decontamination and Infection Control

- Learning Outcomes: Define disinfection and decontamination, be effective in our procedures and implement the HTM 0105

Aims & Objectives:

- Comprehend the basic requirements for good decontamination practice
- Discuss Essential Quality Requirements and Best Practice
- Think about validation
- Look at pre-sterilization cleaning
- Discuss the importance & types of hand washing
- Look at the relevant parts of the Code of Practice
- Apply the HSE's needle re-sheathing guidance

Health and safety

Learning Outcomes

To appreciate and apply health and safety law as it applies to us in dentistry

Aims and Objectives

- Be aware of the laws and main principles of health and safety and demonstrate an understanding of the requirements
- Be able to confidently carry out risk assessments including COSHH
- Know the documentation needed in the Health and Safety File
- Comply with HTM 0107 for Waste Regulations
- Discuss L8 for Legionella
- Look at the CQC Outcomes 10 & 11