

Occlusal Splints-use and abuse
SW16-10-11-2

Date and venue:

11th October 2016

The Mount Somerset Hotel, Henlade, Taunton

Course Organiser:

Lucy Silk

Course Lecturers:

Rob Jagger

Consultant in Restorative Dentistry, University of Bristol

Programme

13.30 Welcome and Introduction

13.35 Occlusion

14.15 Occlusal splints

14.45 Clinical techniques

15.15 Fit splints

15.45 When? When not? Which? Which not?

16.15 Discussion

16.30 Close

Aim

This session aims to give participants a better understanding of the use of splints

Objectives

At the end of the course, participants will

1. Have improved knowledge of the indications for occlusal splints
2. Have improved knowledge of the types of splints
3. Be able to provide occlusal splints appropriately for their patients

Learning Outcomes

Following this course, participants will be confident to use splints appropriately in the management of their patients.

