

An Update in Safeguarding Issues for the Dental Team

Improving health and care through education

All health professionals, including dental staff in general practice who provide treatment & support to promote patient's health, should take part in safeguarding training. They should also have regular updates, so that they can maintain their skills & are familiar with procedures aimed at safeguarding adult & children.

This course, which is open to all members of the dental team including dentists, therapists, hygienists, DCPs & reception staff, is suitable for anyone who comes into contact with vulnerable adults, children, young people & families. It will be compliant with the "Local Safeguarding Children Board" requirements - i.e. what to do if you are worried a child is being abused.

The training will cover basic levels 1 & 2 of the legislation and guidance, in the recognition of child abuse & how to respond to concerns and adhere to safe working practices.

Aims

- To ensure that those attending are aware of the issues surrounding their duty of care towards children & vulnerable adults
- To provide training at levels 1 & 2
- To provide an opportunity to discuss these delicate topics with an experienced trained professional
