

North West Dental Educators Day

Monday 5 October 2026 | Registration 09:30 | Programme 10:00–16:15

NW Dental Training Hub Altrincham

3rd Floor, Altrincham Health and Wellbeing Centre,
33 Market Street, Altrincham, WA14 1RZ

Book via Maxcourse

Reserve your place online

Click here to book

£15 charge, lunch and refreshments provided

Programme at a glance

| Time  | Topic                                                                    | Speaker / lead                                                                                                                   |
|-------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 09:30 | Registration                                                             |                                                                                                                                  |
| 10:00 | Welcome and National Update on Dental Core and Specialty Training | Donna Holden MBE, Regional Postgraduate Dental Dean                                                                              |
| 10:10 | Where is training going post NHS England?                         | Roisin Haslett, Regional Postgraduate Dean                                                                                       |
| 10:40 | Deanery Finance                                                   | Steve Atkinson, Head of Deanery Operations                                                                                       |
| 11:10 | DSFE Update                                                       | Sondos Albadri, Dental Specialty Fellowship Examinations Chairperson; Professor in Paediatric Dentistry, University of Liverpool |
| 11:30 | Coffee break                                                             |                                                                                                                                  |
| 11:45 | Managing Dignity Concerns                                         | Clare Inkster, Associate Dean, Postgraduate Medicine; Melissa Loh, Consultant, Tameside Hospital, Trust EDI Lead for Residents   |
| 12:30 | Lunch                                                                    |                                                                                                                                  |
| 13:30 | Managing Dignity Concerns                                         | Clare Inkster and Melissa Loh                                                                                                    |
| 14:30 | Coffee break                                                             |                                                                                                                                  |
| 14:45 | Let's Talk About Burnout in Healthcare                            | Ayo Olatoye, Consultant in Acute Medicine, Acute Medical Unit SDEC Lead, Whiston Hospital                                        |
| 16:15 | Round up and close                                                       |                                                                                                                                  |

Booking

Please reserve your place via Maxcourse using the booking link above.

Enquiries

england.dental.nw@nhs.net