

Deaf and Disability Training

An event for the dental team

This course is designed to provide an understanding of the barriers deaf or disabled people face in everyday situations that may prohibit them from attending your dental practice.

Objectives:

- Identify prejudicial thoughts, assumptions and stereotyping.
- Understand how hearing loss impedes communication in everyday situations.
- Recognise the different communication support systems that are available.

Learning outcomes:

On completion of this course delegates will have a greater understanding of the medical and social barriers that deaf and disabled people encounter. Practices will be able to adapt to make the services they provide more accessible.

'It was an amazing day and Darren is an inspiration. It was a thought provoking session and I will definitely use what I learnt within my practice to provide a better service' (quote taken from a previous lecture).

This course qualifies for 3 hours verifiable CPD
