

ILM Level 3 Mentoring Award

We now have limited places available for the Institute of Leadership & Management Level 3 Mentoring Award.

The Level 3 in Mentoring Award is designed for people in their first management roles, such as team leaders and first-line managers. It is ideal for individuals seeking to develop the skills, knowledge and confidence to mentor people as part of their normal working role.

You will study 3 mandatory units: 'Understanding good practice in workplace mentoring' covers what mentors do and how they do it. 'Reflecting on workplace mentoring skills' will give you the tools to analyse and improve your performance as a mentor. 'Undertaking mentoring in the workplace' requires you to plan and carry out at least six hours of mentoring, with supervision and support.

Learning Outcomes:

- Learn about mentoring as a powerful development tool
- Understand the role and responsibilities of good mentors
- Explore different mentoring models
- Put your new skills into practice in your job
- Analyse, assess and plan to improve your own mentoring ability.

This course qualifies for 16 hours verifiable CPD.

Places are limited for this event and will be allocated on a first come first served basis. You must attend all sessions. Refreshments will be provided.
