

A case based introduction to GENOMICS and its relevance to your everyday practice

Tuesday 4th October 2023

*This event will be held virtually between 9am and 12.30pm

What is precision medicine?
How is it relevant for my patients with rare disease and cancer?
How does genomics influence prescribing?
How do I talk to patients and families about genomics?
Where can I find more information about genomics?

Speakers to include*

Dr Caroline Platt

Consultant Paediatrics Nephrologist at University Bristol Trust
Clinical lead for Rare Disease for the
South West GMSA

Mr Frank McDermott

Consultant Colorectal Surgeon at Royal Devon
University Healthcare Trust
Clinical lead for Cancer for the South West GMSA

Tracie Miles

Associate Director of Nursing and Midwifery
for the South West GMSA

Rachel Palmer

Clinical lead for Pharmacy for the
South West GMSA

- speakers are subject to change

Rare Disease

Cancer

Pharmacy

Nursing & Midwifery