

Public Health – Who Cares?

Weds 22nd May

09:30 – 16:15. Online (Teams)

09:30 – 10:30 Welcome and introduction to public health

Professor G.J. Melendez-Torres, Professor of Clinical and Social Epidemiology & Director – SPHERE

10:30 – 11:20 Nature based solutions for planetary health in the climate change era

Dr. Ben Wheeler, Associate Professor and Co-Director, European Centre for Environment and Human Health

Short break

11:30 – 12:20 SPHERE Research Project Overview: Understanding the impact of mandatory energy (kcal) labelling in out-of-home food environments in England

Dr. Kerry Ann Brown, Senior Lecturer in Nutrition

12:20 – 13:00 Public Priorities for Public Health

Dr. Kath Maguire, Assistant Director, Public Involvement and Engagement - SPHERE

LUNCH

13:45 – 14:30 Mental Health in the Year 2024

Professor G.J. Melendez-Torres, Professor of Clinical and Social Epidemiology & Director – SPHERE

14:30 – 15:00 “Statistics: Interpreting results from analyses comparing binary outcomes between two groups”? - Part One

Prof. Obioha Ukoumunne, Professor in Medical Statistics

Break

15:10 – 16:00 “Statistics: Interpreting results from analyses comparing binary outcomes between two groups”? – Part Two

16:00 – 16:15 Clinical academic pathways. Development opportunities for doctors within the National Institute for Health and Care Research and the School for Public Health Research.

Prof. G.J. Melendez-Torres, Professor of Clinical and Social Epidemiology & Director – SPHERE

16:15 Final questions and wrap up