

TITLE: Inhalational Sedation – training for the dental team - A 2 day practical course

Venue: Seminar Room, Robert Wiseman Creamery, North Pertherton , Somerset @ Jnct 24 M5

Date: 7 & 8th July 2010

Aim of the course:

To provide an introduction to Inhalation Sedation for those interested providing the service for patients either as operators or as dental nurses assisting.

Objectives:

By the end of the course participants will:

- Have an overview of inhalation sedation /context for use, historical background, etc
- Have reviewed options for managing anxious patients
- Be aware of the key medico -legal and professional aspects of IHS, including consent
- Be aware of the anatomy, physiology and pharmacology related to IHS provision
- Understand the preparation and delivery of safe IHS to patients
- Understand principles of patient management under IHS including handling complications
- Have practised the key non-clinical aspects of these objectives.

Programme:

Day 1

0900 Registration
0915 Introduction and welcome. Where are you now?
0930 Session 1 – theory 1
1030 Coffee
1045 Session 2 – theory 2
1115 Practical Session 1
1230 Lunch
1330 Patient selection
1400 Assessing patients, pre-op and post-op
Inhalation sedation techniques
1500 Tea
1530 Monitoring patients and managing complications
1615 What have you learnt today?
1645 Summary and close

Day 2

0900 Pain & anxiety control
1000 Practical session 2
1045 Coffee
1115 Nitrous oxide – understanding its uses and actions
1200 Health & Safety considerations
1245 Lunch
1345 Practical session 3
1415 Record keeping
1500 Tea
1530 Post sedation – clinical governance
1630 Questions & close

Lecturers: Mr Gerry Tyrer, Mr Rob Munday, Mrs Elizabeth May, Mrs Yuri Watkins