

Medical Photography Workshop for Dental Practice

Date and Venue:

Monday 11th October 2010
Education Centre, Level 5,
Salisbury District Hospital

Course Lecturer:

Miss Marie Jones
Senior Medical Photographer Salisbury District Hospital
Lecturer in Medical Photography University of Westminster

Course Organiser:

Miss Victoria Beale
Consultant Cleft / Maxillofacial Surgeon and Postgraduate Tutor

Programme

- 13.45 Registration and Coffee
- 14.00 Overview of Medical Photography
- 14.30 Consent, confidentiality, legal and ethical issues
Safe storage of images including image naming protocols
- 15.00 Coffee
- 15.30 Interactive Practical Photography Session
- 17.00 Close

Aims

This course will demonstrate techniques to enable you to take good quality standardised medical photographs. Consent and confidentiality issues, including methods of storing and retrieving images will also be covered. Be prepared for an interactive practical workshop.

Learning Outcomes

- Understand the uses of medical photography for dental practice
- Understand consent, confidentiality, legal and ethical issues
- Understand safe storage of images including image naming protocols
- Be able to photograph standardised dental views

You are welcome to bring your own camera equipment together with intra-oral mirrors and retractors.

Register Online at <http://www.bris.ac.uk/dentalpg/>