

Dental Acupuncture for the Dental Team

Dr David Johnson BSc(Hons) BDS(Wales) MFDS RCS(Eng)
Community Dental Officer
Cardiff and Vale University Health Board

Friday 14 October, 2011
Postgraduate Medical Centre, Bath

- 09.00 Registration & Coffee
- 09.30 Introduction & Session 1
- 10.45 Coffee & Discussion
- 11.00 Session 2
- 12.30 Lunch & Discussion
- 13.15 Session 3
- 15.00 Tea & Discussion
- 15.15 Session 4
- 16.25 Conclusions & consensus
- 16.30 Close

By the end of the session participants will have an understanding of:

- The background of acupuncture
- The principles of how acupuncture works, both Chinese and Scientific hypothesis
- Diagnosis of head and neck myofascial pain
- The application of acupuncture in relation to dentistry and conditions treated
- Side effects and complications of acupuncture
- How to start using acupuncture in your Dental Practice

Practical sessions include:

- Identification of acupuncture points, local and distant
- Practical needling of acupuncture in groups of 2 or 3 people