

TMJ - Successful management in general practice

Taunton

Tuesday, January 24th 2012

Robert Jagger BDS MScD FDSRCS
Consultant Senior Lecturer
University of Bristol

14.00	TMD. The disorders Diagnosis and differential diagnosis
15.00	Examination. Hands –on
15.45	Successful treatment. An evidence-based approach
16.45	Discussion
17.0	Close

AIM:

This course provides hands-on experience of diagnosis and management of temporomandibular disorders in a relaxed but informative setting.

OBJECTIVES

Learning outcomes

At the end of the course participants will:

- Appreciate the information that is needed to diagnose temporomandibular disorders
- Have improved knowledge of treatment of temporomandibular disorders