

Treatment Planning and Restoring the Compromised Dentition

Lecturer:

Mr Anthony Vaughan BDS, FDSRCPS, FDSRCS, MRDRCS

Consultant in Restorative Dentistry for the Plymouth Hospitals NHS Trust at Derriford Hospital, Plymouth and Specialist Practitioner in Restorative Dentistry and Prosthodontics in Yelverton.

Date and Venue:

Thursday 20th September, 2012
The Alverton Manor Hotel, Truro

Course Organiser:

Carrie Bradburn, Postgraduate Tutor

PROGRAMME

17.30	Registration & Finger Buffet
18.15	Identification of restorative problems 'Treatment Planning' 'Management of the Worn Dentition' 'Space Generation'
19:30	Tea/Coffee
19.45	Completed case studies presented by AGV Practical treatment planning
21.00	Questions & Close

Aim: To provide an overview of treatment planning and restoration of a compromised dentition

Objectives: By the end of the day delegates should have an improved understanding of:

- Identification of restorative problems
- Treatment planning
- Management of the worn dentition
- Space generation

Participants are welcome to bring along patient records of any cases from practice to discuss.