

Antibiotics – use and abuse in dentistry & Close encounters of the regulator kind!

Date and Venue:
Monday 25th February, 2013
Alverton Manor Hotel, Truro

Course Organiser:
Carrie Bradburn, Dental Postgraduate Tutor

Course Lecturer:
Dr Martin Fulford BDS MPhil DGDP FIBMS

Programme

09.00 – 09.30 Registration and Tea/Coffee

09.30 -10.45 A rationale for using antibiotics safely and effectively

10.45 - 11.15 Tea/Coffee

11.15 -12.30 Good prescribing practice for dental conditions

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch

13.30 – 14.45 An overview of how the GDC works
A look at common and not so common events that may lead to a GDC investigation

14.45 – 15.15 Tea/Coffee

15.15 – 16.30 Strategies for minimising risks of a GDC investigation.

16.30 Questions & Close

Aim:- To look at good prescribing practice for dental conditions and to provide an overview of how the GDC works

Objectives:- By the end of the training delegates will have a better understanding of:-

A rationale for using antibiotics safely and effectively
Common and not so common events that may lead to a GDC investigation
Strategies for minimising risks of a GDC investigation