

NHS Education South West
Dental Postgraduate Deanery

Decontamination: Practical Procedures for the Dental Team.
(COURSE ID)

Friday 21st March 2014 2.00-5.00pm

Passage House Hotel
Hackney Lane, Kingsteignton, Newton Abbot, Devon, TQ12 3QH

Course Organiser: Roger Robinson

Course Lecturers:
Carmel Maher, Willow Infection Control Training

Programme

13.30-14.00 Registration with refreshments

14.00-17.00 Decontamination: Practical Procedures for the Dental Team

There will be a 15-minute refreshments break at about 15.15

Aims & Objectives

- To provide a detailed explanation of the procedures required for implementing effective infection control as recommended in the Department of Health Document HTM01-05
- To provide a clear understanding of the reasons for implementing these procedures
- To understand the importance and correct use of Personal Protective Equipment
- To understand the importance of cleaning instruments prior to sterilisation
- To understand the importance of decontaminating the surgery and/or the decontamination facility
- To provide a clear understanding of the advice on effective hand hygiene
- To understand the testing requirements of decontamination equipment