

COMPLETE DENTURES – PROBLEM SOLVED (SW13-10-18-2)

Engineers' House, The Promenade, Clifton Down, Bristol BS8 3NB

Course Organiser:

Louise Nash

Course Lecturers:

Robert Jagger BDS MScD FDSRCS
Consultant Senior Lecturer, University of Bristol

Programme

13.30	Registration
14.00	Introduction
14.15	Standard technique(s) -
15.00	Special techniques
16.15	The difficult patient
16.45	Discussion
17.00	Close

AIM

This course provides an opportunity to discuss problems and solutions related to complete denture prosthetics in a relaxed but informative setting.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of the course participants will be able to:

- Understand what is needed to achieve success when treating edentulous patients
- Understand the use of special techniques used to manage difficult patients