

Topical Fluoride Application With Plaque And Debris Scoring OSCE

SW15-11-14-1

Date and venue:

Saturday 14th November 2015

Peninsula Dental School
Dental Education Facility
Tamar Science Park
20 Research Way,
Derriford,
Plymouth,
PL6 8BT

Course Organiser:

Heidi Mills

Course Lecturers:

Ross MacRae

Programme

09:00	Registration/Brief
09.15 -13:00	OSCE's/Log Book Checks
13:00	Course Ends

Course Aim:

-Participant will have completed the theory training in plaque disclosing and the application of topical fluoride varnish.

-Be able to demonstrate competency when using disclosing solution, recording the correct score, and be confident while giving appropriate oral health advice to patients.

-To be competent in the application of topical fluoride varnish and be confident while giving appropriate oral health advice.

Course Objectives:

Delegates will be expected to demonstrate competency in the following while being observed:-

- Check medical history and consent
- Check prescription
- Prepare surgery, materials for the correct procedure and methods for recording plaque
- Competent in practical techniques
- Demonstrate the use of materials safely
- Be able to manage any complication that may occur
- Demonstrate effective infection control techniques
- Ensure continuity of care for the patient
- Be able to answer any questions asked by parents or patients on the procedures
- Demonstrate effective communication skills