

Essential Periodontics: Non-Surgical Management

Lecturers:

Phil Ower & Ian Dunn

Date and venue:

Friday 15 July 2016

Kingsley Suite, Kingsley Village

Course Organiser:

Carrie Bradburn, Postgraduate Tutor

PROGRAMME

09.00 Registration & Tea/Coffee

09.30 Welcome and Introductions

09.40 Non-Surgical Therapy - Principles

11.00 Coffee

11.15 Non-Surgical Therapy - Techniques

12.30 Use of Antimicrobials

13.00 Lunch

14.00 Groupwork and Discussion - Case 7
(planning complex cases)

14.30 Management of Furcations

15.00 Tea

15.15 Management of Perio-Endo Lesions

16.00 Groupwork and Discussion - What would you do?

16.30 Close

Aim: To appreciate the range of periodontal treatment options available and indications for each

Objectives: The course should enable participants to:

Choose an appropriate treatment approach for individual patients

Use antimicrobials in a rational and evidence-based way

Manage furcation lesions

Manage perio-endo lesions

Outcome: Delegates should understand the objectives of non-surgical therapy and how this relates to current practice