

Managing periodontal disease and its sequelae.

Date and venue:
Wednesday 10th May 2017
The Barn Function Centre
Berkeley
GL13 9EW

Course Organiser:
Keith George

Course Lecturers:
Mr Roger Yates BDS, MScD, FDSRCS

Programme

09.00- 09.30	Registration.
09.30-10.15	Aetiology and pathogenesis of periodontal disease.
10.15-11.00	Current classification of periodontal disease / what is peri-implantitis.
11.00-11.15	Coffee
11.15-12.00	Screening for and charting of periodontal disease. What does it really tell us.
12.00-12.45	Rationale and treatment modalities for non-surgical periodontal Therapy- part 1.
12.45-13.45	Lunch.
13.45-14.15	Rationale and treatment modalities for non-surgical periodontal therapy- part 2 .
14.15-16.15	Case based presentations and discussions including the management Of peri-implantitis.
16.15-16.45	Questions and feedback

Course Aims and Objectives.

- 1- List the current classification of periodontal disease.
- 2- Describe the rationale for non-surgical periodontal therapy and be aware of the different adjunctive treatments including antibiotics and when they are indicated.
- 3- Understand the importance of and the impact of supportive periodontal therapy.

4- Understand periodontal treatment options for improving aesthetics in the periodontally compromised patient.

5- Understand the basics of peri-implantitis and what the team can do.

.

Learning Outcomes.

To be able to achieve better diagnosis and treatment of periodontally challenged patients in practice.

Lecturer

Roger trained at Birmingham Dental Hospital qualifying in 1984. The following 5 year period was spent developing skills in hospital services including 3 years as a registrar in Restorative Dentistry. The next 7 years in general practice then a return to hospital services at Bristol where he completed specialist training in Restorative Dentistry and gained a Consultant post in 2003.