

CIEH level 2 Award In health & safety in the workplace

Syllabus

Introduction

Accidents, accident prevention, recording and reporting, cost of poor and benefits of good safety standards, occupational health, safety and welfare

Health & safety law

Legislation, responsibilities and duties, enforcement

Risk assessment

Hazard identification, Risk evaluation, control measures

Workplace H&S Welfare Responsibilities

Environment and safety signs

Work Equipment Hazards

Precautions, responsibilities

Fire Safety

Causes, the fire triangle, prevention, control

Hazardous substances

Identification, assessment and control

Ergonomics & Display Screen Equipment

Regulations, hazards, assessment and control

Personal Protective Equipment

Types, assessment, responsibilities,

Additional Subjects Covered

Working at heights, transport and vehicles, noise and vibration

(Please note, these subjects re a mandatory part of the syllabus, however they may not directly relate to the dental environment, therefore, a brief overview will be given)