

Dental Postgraduate Department

Endodontics: diagnosis to final restoration (SW19-04-24-1)

Date and venue:

Wednesday 24th, Thursday 25th, Friday 26th April 2019
Clinical Skills Lab, School of Dental Hygiene, Bristol Dental Hospital

Course Organiser:

Lucy Silk

Course Lecturers:

Jon Cowie BDS Dip Endo MClintDent (Endo) MEndo RCS (Ed)
Luca Moranzoni BDS MFDS RCSEd MClintDent MEndo RCS (Ed)
Colin McGuirk BDS MSc (Dental Implantology) MClintDent
Oliver Bailey BDS (Hons) MFDS RCSEd PG Cert Clin Imp Dent

Programme

Wednesday 24th April

Registration 9.00 til 9.30 : Details to be sent prior to joining course

- The combined restorative and endodontic assessment including pre-endodontic management, restoration disassembly and foundation restorations to ease endodontic treatment.
- Hands on Rubber Dam for general restorative and endodontic scenarios
- Modern access cavity with hands on practice
- Glide path management and introduction to simplified canal preparation with OneCurve and OneG
- Hands on glide path and canal preparation on Typodont teeth (upper first premolar and upper first molar)
- Simplifying treatment with apex locators

Thursday 25th April

- Modern root canal irrigation, interappointment medication and temporary restorations
- Obturation with a quick cold lateral compaction technique (theory and hands on)
- Complete preparation and obturation of Typodont teeth
- Coronal seal, core fillings and post selection, fabrication and cementation
- Hands on direct titanium post cementation and direct composite overlay

Dental Postgraduate Department

Friday 26th April

- Biomechanics - definitive restorations - direct vs indirect and full vs partial coverage
- Complete any preparation and obturate upper first molar
- Management of deep carious lesion and modern simplified bonding protocols
- Hands on onlay preparation