

‘An update on managing caries in children’

Date and venue:

Tuesday 2nd July 2019

Postgraduate Medical Centre, Royal United Hospital, Bath

Course Lecturer:

Rebecca John, Senior Teaching Fellow
Hon. Consultant in Paediatric Dentistry Bristol Dental School

Programme:

0900 Registration and Coffee
0930 Introduction
0945 Diagnosis of caries in the primary and permanent dentition
1000 Aetiology of caries and prevention
1030 Restorative management of caries in the primary dentition
1130 Coffee
1145 Pulp therapy in the primary dentition
1245 Lunch
1345 Management of caries in the permanent dentition
1445 First permanent molars of poor prognosis
1530 Treatment planning using case scenarios
1630 Conclusion

Aims and Objectives:

To review the current evidence in managing caries in the primary and permanent dentition

The course should enable participants to:

- Discuss the diagnosis of caries based on current evidence
- Consider the options for managing caries in the primary dentition
- Review the evidence for managing caries in the permanent dentition
- Identify treatment options for managing caries using case scenarios