

Gloucester DCT regional study day-Facial Trauma and Plating Course-November 27th

Course Venue: Jurys Inn Cheltenham, Gloucester Road Cheltenham GL51 0TS

Lunch and light refreshments provided.

Faculty:

Miss Iffy Beaumont-Specialty Doctor OMFS

Miss Andrea Beech-Consultant Oral Surgeon

Mr Etienne Botha-SPR OMFS

Miss Margaret Coyle-Consultant OMFS

Mr Jerry Farrier -Consultant OMFS

Mr Greg Knepil-Consultant OMFS

Mr Thomas Lees-Associate Specialist OMFS

Miss Rachel Nunn-Stryker Rep

Aim:

- To provide a overview of OMFS trauma and demonstrate the different plating systems used in the management of facial fractures

Objectives:

- Delivery of a brief explanation of the main principles of plating.
- Discussion regarding the management of a major trauma patient
- Discussion of the common types of OMFS fractures and their management using short lectures
- Demonstration of use of plating systems on synthetic skulls during 3 hand-on sessions

Program:

0930-0940: Opening and introduction

0940-0950: Overview of Stryker and their products-Miss Rachel Nunn

0950-1015: Principles of plating (rigid/semi-rigid, locking/friction screws) , management of mandible fractures and mandibular Champy principles. (Mr Etienne Botha)

10.15-1115: Workshop 1: Mandible using stryker universal mandibular fracture set

1115-1130: Coffee

1130-1145: Lecture-Management of condyle fractures (Miss Margaret Coyle)

1145-1245: Workshop 2: Mandible continued and edentulous mandible using reconstruction set

1245-1330: Lunch

1330-1400: Assessment major trauma patient and midface trauma (Mr Greg Knepil)

1400-14.20: Zygomatic and Orbital floor repair (Mr Etienne Botha)

14.20-1530: Workshop 3: Upper face fractures using Stryker 1.2/1.7 plating set

1530-1545: Quiz

15.45: Evaluation and close