

Trauma in the permanent and primary dentition in children

Date and venue:

Tuesday 2nd March 2021

Engineers House

BS8 3NB

Course Organiser:

Keith George

Course Lecturer:

Mrs Rebecca John FDSRCS (Paed). M Paed Dent, BDS

Consultant Paediatric Dentistry

Programme

09.30 Tea and Registration.

09.45-10.00 Introduction, Aims and Objectives.

09.45-11.15 Session 1 – Diagnosis, management and prognosis of fractures in the permanent dentition.

11.15-11.30 Coffee

11.30-13.00 Session 2- Luxation injuries in the permanent and primary dentition.

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-15.00 Session 3- Diagnosis and management and prognosis of dental injuries in the primary dentition.

15.00-15.15 Tea.

15.15-16.15 Session 4- Management of clinical cases and splinting

.

16.15 Questions and feedback.

AIMS-

To provide an update on managing dental trauma in children.

OUTCOMES-

- 1- Identify the various types of dental trauma that occur in children.
- 2- Explain the biological processes involved in dental injuries and determine the long term prognosis.
- 3- Justify the investigations and use the information gathered to formulate a treatment plan.
- 4- Have knowledge of managing acute dental injuries.
- 5- Discuss the long-term implications of dental trauma in children.

Learning outcomes-

A,B,C and D