

Oral Health Updated for Dental Nurses

SW18-04-28

Saturday 28th April 2018

Ingleside house
5 Beeches Road,
Cirencester
GL7 1BN

Course Organiser:

Jackie Gazzard

Course Lecturers

Debs Alps

Programme

08.30 - 09.00	Registration , tea, coffee & pastries
09.00 - 10.30	How to deliver Oral Health effectively by recognising patients target groups and their needs using products available
10.30 - 10.45	Tea , coffee & biscuits
10.45 -11.30	effective communication with your patient and other team members
11.30 – 12.45	Oral Health workshop
12.45 – 13.00	Q & A session
13.00	Course finish

Oral Health education workshop for DCP's covering oral hygiene instructions and products used

An interactive course covering how best to deliver oral hygiene to your patients using relevant oral hygiene aids

Dental Postgraduate Department

Health Education South West

AIM

To update DCP's on how to best deliver oral hygiene to their patients, furthering their skills in oral health education and oral health promotion.

OBJECTIVES

- To be able to deliver oral health messages effectively : the effect of oral health messages on patients and healthcare professionals
- To be able to Communicate effectively : methods of communication, barriers to effective communication and principles of education
- To be able to recognise and promote oral health to target groups – identifying specific oral health messages for a variety of individuals using a variety of oral hygiene aids
- To be able to discuss dietary advice to individuals to enable the reduction of caries and periodontal disease.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the course delegates will be able to:-

Demonstrate effective communication skills in delivering Oral Health promotion using a variety of oral hygiene products

GDC Development Outcomes

A - Communication skills