

Treatment Planning and Restoring the Compromised Dentition 12-02-09-1

Lecturer:

Mr Anthony Vaughan BDS, FDSRCPS, FDSRCS, MRDRCS
Consultant in Restorative Dentistry for the South Devon Healthcare Trust at Torbay Hospital and for the Plymouth Hospitals NHS Trust at Derriford Hospital, Plymouth

Date and Venue:

Thursday 9th February, 2012
The Alverton Manor Hotel, Truro

Course Organiser:

Carrie Bradburn, Postgraduate Tutor

PROGRAMME

09.00	Registration & Tea/Coffee
09.30	Identification of restorative problems (small group work with provided patient records)
10.00	'Treatment Planning'
11:00	Tea/Coffee
11.30	'Management of the Worn Dentition'
12.15	'Space Generation'
13.00	Lunch
14.00	Completed case studies presented by AGV
14.45	Practical treatment planning (small group work with provided patient records)
15.15	Tea/Coffee
15.30	Presentations by groups and discussion of proposed treatment plans
16.30	Questions & Close

Aim: To provide an overview of treatment planning and restoration of a compromised dentition

Objectives: By the end of the day delegates should have an improved understanding of:

- Identification of restorative problems
- Treatment planning
- Management of the worn dentition
- Space generation

Participants are welcome to bring along patient records of any cases from practice to discuss.