

Dental Postgraduate Department

Health Education South West

Managing Dental Hypersensitivity Effectively
(SW-20-03-17-1)
Tuesday 17th March 2020
Double Tree Hilton Bristol City Centre
BS1 6NJ

Course organiser
Diane Bell

Course Lecturer

Dr Peter Galgut

Programme

Registration- 9.15

Session 1 - 9.30am

Refreshments 11.00m

Session 2 - 11.30am

Lunch – 1.00 pm served in the hotel restaurant

Session 3 - 1.45

Refreshments – 3.00pm

Session 4 – 3.15 pm

Aims -To summarise current thinking in root surface debridement. To Demonstrate and give practical advice on effective root surface debridement in clinical practice

Objectives - To gain new skills in non-surgical periodontal therapy

Learning outcomes - Demonstrate confidence through updating and improving delegates mechanical debridement techniques

Recognise new designs in instrumentation and techniques to improve delegates clinical efficiency

Identify the tools to achieve improved treatment outcomes and more efficient management of periodontal disease for our patients

GDC outcomes C & D