By Train

There are two stations in Bristol, the one that serves the city centre is called Bristol Temple Meads. (The other one is Bristol Parkway, on the north side of the city near the M4 motorway). Having arrived at at Temple Meads you have a choice of either:

- Taxi to the Dental Hospital (approx. £6)
- Walking - only advisable if you have a lot of time, a good map and an excellent sense of direction (about a 15 minute walk)
- The best service to take from the station is the number 8 or 9 bus, which go to Redland and Clifton via the Town Centre before heading back to Temple Meads. You should get off at Broadmead shopping centre. The bus stops outside Debenhams. Walk further down the road towards the Bay Horse pub and follow the walking directions above.

By Bus

If travelling locally, or by National Express, the Bus Station is situated almost opposite the Dental Hospital. Some buses may also stop at Debenhams.

By Car

There are a few NCP car parks in the vicinity. As well as the car parks indicated on the map above there is also a car park called Trenchard Street on Park Row and it is just up the road from the Dental Hospital.

If you are travelling along the A4 from the East, there is a Park and Ride at Brislington, the service operates from Monday to Friday between 06:45 and 19:09 weekdays and between 07:40 and 18.55 on Saturdays. On Thursdays the service runs until 20:21 for late shopping in Broadmead.

The journey time into central Bristol is around 20 minutes. Buses operate approximately every 10 minutes – there will normally be a bus waiting to depart from the car park.

The bus fare is about £3.00 return and the bus drops outside Debenhams. Then follow the directions above.
