About the Tutors

This Blended Learning Platform is led by Professor Neal Maskrey and Dr Nick Price.

Professor Neal Maskrey: I am a Visiting Professor of Evidence-Informed Decision Making, University of Keele, a Former Programme Director for NICE and a former GP. I started running MRCGP preparation courses for the Yorkshire Faculty of the RCGP in 1990 and have a particular interest in teaching Evidence Based Medicine and Clinical Decision Making.

Dr Nick Price: I am a former GP Trainer, TPD for the Bradford GP Training Scheme, Clinical Lecturer at Leeds University, and Education Lead for the White Rose Faculties of the RCGP. I started teaching on the Yorkshire MRCGP preparation course in 1998 whilst studying for my MSc in Medical Education.

We have been working together providing AKT Courses for the Yorkshire, North West and Cumbria Faculties of the RCGP since 2009, supported by a group of tutors and the RCGP Faculty Administration team. We are also working closely with HEEYH locally and regionally.
