

Self-Awareness & Respectful Curiosity: An Approach to Working with Diversity

Tuesday, 7th May 2019 – 09:00 to 16:00

Thorpe Park Hotel & Spa, 1150 Century Walk, Thorpe Park, Leeds, LS15 8ZB

Dr Aarti Bansal: GP and Academic Training Fellow at the AUPMC University of Sheffield

09:00	Arrival, Registration &amp; Refreshments
09:30	Introduction to day and group introductions
10:00	Explore our multiple contextual cultural identities Look at how culture influences our reactions/assumptions and the delivery of patient-centred care
11:25	Coffee Break
11:45	Why is patient-centred care a "good thing"
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Look at the "Understanding General Practice" course which is available to those with a SJT (PDT) score of 2 or those who self-identify as International Medical Graduates in ST1. What is taught and the evaluation
14:25	Tea Break
14:45	Explore together what works in training for the people who come to us as trainees
15:30	Feedback
16:00	Depart