Learning outcomes

On completion of the course, you should be better able to:

- plan and structure your teaching in relation to the students you are teaching
- set learning outcomes to suit varying levels of student attainment
- plan and deliver lectures & presentations
- plan and facilitate small groups teaching and one-to-one teaching
- apply the principles of adult learning and teaching
- assess your students learning in order to give constructive and relevant feedback
- evaluate your teaching.

¹ You will, between the two days, be expected to prepare a short lecture / presentation.
