

ILM Level 5 Diploma in Principles of Leadership and Management Distance Learning

Who is this qualification for?

The ILM Level 5 Diploma is aimed at middle managers seeking a thorough grounding in their role and responsibilities, plus the opportunity to consolidate and further develop the key skills and knowledge they need at this level.

Benefits for individuals

- Enhance core management capabilities
- Develop knowledge in a range of areas, such as finance, marketing & change management
- Take responsibility for your own development as a leader
- Prove you can make a measurable impact on your organisation through work-place based projects and assessment
- Benchmark your managerial skills with a nationally recognised qualification.
- Demonstrate effective management and leadership skills to comply with the GDC Standards and the ECPD scheme

Benefits for employers

- Build sustainable management practice that works for the long term
- Encourage staff to proactively manage their career progression
- Close skills gaps – the broad range of units means you can customise this qualification to fit organisational development needs.
- Evidence that staff are suitably qualified, competent and skilled necessary for the work to be performed as stated in CQC Well-led KLOE and other Regulations.
- Validate effective practice and business management
- Demonstrate a team commitment to the GDC standards for the protection of patients

Programme Structure & Delivery

The course is delivered using a blended method of learning over a maximum of twelve months. All learners will have access to a series of information packs spread over eight consecutive months. The packs contain everything required to undertake the course and provides information, advice and guidance on how to complete assignments. Candidates will have their work assessed remotely and constructive feedback provided. Tutor 1-1 virtual contact is also built into the course and scheduled at times convenient for both parties.

Assessment of the Award

Learners are required to demonstrate their knowledge & understanding of management principles across seven prescribed units. Reading, research & reflection is essential to assist with the completion of assignments. These are set against ILM specified criteria & marked by an assessor who is a qualified & experienced strategic business leader. Work based learning will be applied which involves tailoring the assignments to their place of work, examining documentary evidence of the management role and undertaking professional discussions to support evidence presented where required.

Course fee

If your application is successful a fee of £360 is payable immediately to HEE to secure your place (£360) there will be no additional charges.